Origin Story

Born on Genosha to a human mother, taken in by Emma Frost for training. Her precognition showed her a vision of Sentinels attacking Genosha, which then occurred, killing her and her mother. Emma Frost was left heartbroken.

Later, she was resurrected along with many other mutants by Selene, an ancient mutant that has lived since ancient times due to her energy-draining powers.

Afterwards, Ellie joined Deadpool and the Mercs for Money, but when they disbanded, she became a New Mutant.

Abilities & Resources

Ellie is a mutant with psychic-based powers. Ellie has an odd caveat to her precognitive powers. After some in-depth study by Emma Frost, she found that her powers change with the nature of the futures she pursues. The gleaning of which enables her to select and choose which possible divergent passage she views to change the nature of what powers she'll receive in them. Giving Ellie various new abilities to supplement her core default ones. Negasonic likens the phenomenon to being a backwards echo, where she takes on the potentiality of her far-flung self's newfound powers at the cost of swapping out prior powers from other realities.
